Finding the Site for a Lakewood Masonic Temple

A century ago, on June 10, 1912, the incorporators of our Lakewood Masonic Temple Company met at the then-Masonic Hall, at the corner of Warren Road and Detroit Avenue, according to the corporate minutes, "to order the opening of the books of subscription to the capital stock of the Company," on which occasion the then-existing Lakewood Masonic organizations—Lakewood Lodge #601 F&AM, Cunningham Chapter #187 RAM, and Lincoln Chapter #309 OES (now part of Ann Rutledge Chapter #453 OES)—together with many individual members, subscribed to a total of 469 shares representing a value of over $110,000 in today's dollars.

The Company's first stockholders' meeting was held on November 8, 1912. Nine Masons—P. H. Keese, J. Moyer, Wm. Bayne, R. B. Sanders, Daniel Loew, James Chrisford, Chas. L. Wood, N. C. Cotabish and Louis Weigand—were elected as the first Board of Directors to serve a term of one year or until their successors were elected and qualified.

The first Board of Directors meeting was held immediately following the first stockholders' meeting, at which time Keese was elected Temporary Chairman and Moyer Temporary Secretary. Not wasting any time in taking on their duties, the Directors agreed to meet on the first and third Fridays of each month at 8:00p. Permanent Building and Audit Committees consisting of three members each were established and committee duties adopted; neither committee included the President, Secretary or Treasurer. The Directors were sworn and then recessed until November 18, at which meeting they adopted a motion to call in architects for consideration and recessed until November 25.

Names initially proposed were some of Cleveland's leading architects of the time—Bohnard & Parsson [known primarily for residential architecture in Lakewood and Cleveland Heights], Fountain & Moratz [Sampson J. Fountain worked on the interior arcade of the Sterling & Welch store; the partnership designed several churches and residences], Charles William Hopkinson [Riverside Cemetery Building, Franklin Circle Masonic Temple, several churches and schools and many residences], Hubbell & Benes [see the box on page 2], Frederic William Striebinger [a Mason; the architect of several local hospitals; Masonic temples, including the Pythian Castle (Prince Hall Masonic Temple) and the Woodward and Heights Masonic Temples; and Christian Science churches], and Lewis W. Thomas.

On November 25, the Directors elected their first full set of officers—Keese, President; Chrisford, First Vice President; Sanders, Second Vice President; Moyer, Secretary; and Cotabish, Treasurer. Having a change of heart, the Board decided that "no architects, but a Mason, be employed to draw plans for the proposed Temple." The President was authorized to appoint a committee on site "for the purpose of ascertaining prices on a suitable location for erection of a temple." Wasting no time, Cotabish was assigned to the McMyler and Wager sites, Weigand to the Andrews property and Loew to the property at the corner of Cook and Detroit.

Golden Rules of Giving

1. Give without being asked. Review your assets, not just your cash, to decide how much you can afford to give.
2. Remember key people and experiences in your life when deciding where to give. Begin with causes closest to your heart.
3. Study the best methods for making donations. You might make charitable gifts directly from your assets rather than from your income.
4. Seek no undue influence from your giving. You may want to restrict some gifts for specific purposes, but further conditions may prevent an organization from meeting its current needs.
5. Make giving an integral part of your estate plan. Consult an attorney, accountant or professional estate planner for help.
6. Make "challenge gifts" to encourage others to give.
7. Evaluate the financial efficiency of an organization before supporting it. Look beyond the emotional appeal.
8. Emphatically oppose unprofessional appeals.
9. Encourage your family and friends to give to good causes.
10. Consider your financial responsibility to your family as you design your giving. You cannot support all causes.

Your donation to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation will enable us to carry on our important work of historic preservation, charity and education. And other than printing, mailing and very minor administrative expenses, all Foundation monies are used to support our underlying purposes.

Hubbell and Benes, Architects

Benjamin Hubbell (1867-1953) and W. Dominick Benes (1857-1935) were an architectural team from 1897-1935. Benes was Jephtha Wade's personal architect and designed the Wade Memorial Chapel at Lake View Cemetery with its interior designed by Louis Comfort Tiffany. Wade's grandson commissioned the firm to create Cleveland's "Temple of Art and Culture," the Cleveland Museum of Art—a classical revival building. They developed plans for Wade Park with the museum as its focus. On the West Side, they built the West Side Market (1912) and had hoped to develop a public center there. The market itself is built in the style of the wonderful European indoor/outdoor markets and has columns with terra cotta capitals depicting fruits, vegetables and animals. Hubbell and Benes created a number of important public structures between 1905 and 1930 including the YMCA Building (1908), and the Ohio Bell Telephone building (1925-7). Stated Meeting Second Thursday 7:30 p.m. • Special Meeting Fourth Thursday

Master's Message

Brethren:

We return to our labors on September 13, a date I eagerly await. My officers and I are itching to get back to work. We conduct the business portion of our monthly stated meetings in the Entered Apprentice Degree, so all brethren of any degree can be present and are urged to attend. At our September 13 meeting we are planning a talk on PTSD by Brother Bryant.

We expect to be conferring degrees at our special meetings this fall so that we can keep current with our candidates in progress. At this time we are planning an Entered Apprentice Degree for September 27 and two Master Mason Degrees for October 25. We will hold a Master Mason Degree practice on October 18. Please contact me if you can play a part, either speaking or non-speaking. Watch your emails and our Lodge calendar on www.cliftonallen664fam.org for updates.

This summer was an enjoyable one. Our Lodge and Lakewood Lodge marched together in Lakewood's annual July 4 parade. Yours truly played an excellent South Gate in the 22nd District's first annual Masters-only third degree. Clifton-Gaston Allen was honorably represented. Our annual Lodge BBQ was held at our Senior Deacon Bro. Bert Horne's home. A great time was had by all. I want to thank Bro.

Horne for graciously opening up his home to us.

Our year culminates on November 8 with our annual election of officers. Your presence is required so that you can keep apprised of the condition of our Lodge and help elect our future leaders. Our annual Installation of Officers will be Saturday, November 17, at 3:00p. That weekend we will welcome visitors from our sister Lodges, Trinity #521 of Windsor, Ontario, and St. John's #209a of London, Ontario.

I want to thank my officers and all the brethren that helped make my year as Master successful and memorable. We initiated quality men this year who have added to our Lodge's melting pot. In order for this Lodge to be successful we need to continue our recruiting efforts and filter the desirable from the undesirable. We are the stewards of this fraternity's traditions, and it is up to us to uphold them and protect them.

I leave you with a quote from one of my favorite Masonic elders, Most Worshipful Bro. Benjamin Franklin: "If a man empties his purse into his mind, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."

Lakewood Lodge #601 F. & A. M.

Stated Meetings Second & Fourth Mondays 7:30 p.m.

Master's Message

Lakewood Lodge 601 has earned two awards, one for Second Place Conferral of the Fellow Craft Degree and one for the Bronze Inspection Visitation Award.

Each generation wants its own music, its own customs and its own leadership. Lakewood Lodge had the advantage of a constant supply of new energetic candidates becoming thoroughly involved with our Lodge and its rituals and functions. New members brought other interested candidates into the "fold of Masonry." Each new member that was filled with enthusiasm for the Masonic experience brought new candidate after new candidate into our Lodge. There are those who are just Entered Apprentices, and they desire to advance as quickly as possible – the object being to satisfy their mental thirst for Masonic knowledge and advancement in Masonry.

Masonry in our particular time of economic uncertainty provides a Philosophy and Special Experience by being involved in our Masonic Fraternity.

The success of Lakewood Lodge 601 is entirely due to the individual contributions of each and every member. As I end my year in the East, I am satisfied that the Lodge is in the hands of a well qualified leader who will have the satisfaction of seeing a Lodge enjoying a real Masonic Rebirth with an enthusiastic group of candidates ready to be led into the correct Masonic Ritual & way of life which is Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

Back

Freemasonry, borrowing its symbols from every source, has not neglected to make a selection of certain parts of the human body. From the back an important lesson is derived, which is fittingly developed in the Third Degree. Hence, in reference to this symbolism, Oliver says: "It is a duty incumbent on every Mason to support a brother's character in his absence equally as though he were present; not to revile him behind his back, or suffer it to be done by others, without using every necessary attempt to prevent it."

Hutchinson, Spirit of Masonry (page 205), referring to the same symbolic ceremony, says: "The most material part of that brotherly love which should subsist among us Masons is that of speaking well of each other to the world; more especially it is expected of every member of this Fraternity that he should not traduce his brother. Calumny and slander are detestable crimes against society. Nothing can be viler than to traduce a man behind his back; it is like the villainy of an assassin who has not virtue enough to give his adversary the means of self-defence, but, lurking in darkness, stabs him whilst he is unarmed and unsuspecting of an enemy" (see also Points of Fellowship).

Cunningham Chapter #187 R. A. M.

Stated Meeting Third Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

High Priest's Message

Companions:

I sincerely hope that all of you have had a nice summer as we look forward to resumption of the Masonic year. For the last several years, Cunningham Chapter has had attendance problems, often barely able to make quorum (the minimum number to conduct business, as set by statute). REC Bob Trigg has taken the helm of this Chapter for several years, and for that we are most grateful, since it served to keep our Chapter alive. The statutes state that a High Priest may only serve for two consecutive years. Bob served three years because the Grand High Priest was willing to grant a variance, but made it quite clear that no such variance would be granted to allow Bob to serve a fourth consecutive year. My father presided over Cunningham Chapter in the mid-1950s, and I knew many of the members who were active at that time since they came to our house for picnics and Christmas parties. Cunningham Chapter has been a part of my life since before I attended kindergarten. I could not sit back and watch this Chapter disintegrate without at least trying to ameliorate the situation. It was in this spirit that I offered to be High Priest this year, having already served twice (1999-2000 and 2006-07) and having presided over the Senior DeMolay Mark Master Lodge (2002-03). My offer to serve gets us over the restriction that prevented a fourth year from REC Trigg.

It has been said, "if you want something done, ask a busy man." That is quite a propos, for I am Commander-in-Chief of Consistory, Secretary of my Lodge and Illustrious Master of Lorain Council in addition to Principal Conductor of the Work at Lakewood Council. I made it clear that I would attend all meetings and serve in the East, opening and closing Chapter, but that I have far too much on my plate to be counted upon to take any major parts in our degree work. I simply can't. The willingness is there, but the capacity is already overdrawn.

This is where YOU come in. We need attendance so that we can open Chapter and conduct business. I implore ALL of our local members to do their very best to attend this Chapter to keep it alive. I do not believe that this is asking too much. If you are able to attend and choose not to attend, you are making a conscious choice to allow your Chapter to fail. It's as simple as that.

Secondarily, we need new members. I am pleased to say that several are on the way, but we need to gain about eight who will be willing to attend to revitalize this Chapter. Those who join and fail to attend will not fix the problem. I know that no one wants to attend meetings that can't proceed due to lack of quorum, meetings that are socially vapid because of failure to reach a critical mass and ritual that is lousy because no one knows their parts. You see what the problem is, and I have done MY part. Now, it's YOUR turn. If you want Cunningham Chapter to stay alive, you need to do two things: 1) attend our meetings, and 2) bring us members. For

Esoteric Masonry

That secret portion of Freemasonry which is known only to the initiates as distinguished from Exoteric Freemasonry, or monitorial, which is accessible to all who choose to read the manuals and published works of the Order. The words are from the Greek, ἑσωτερικός, internal, and ἑξωτερικός, external, and were first used by Pythagoras, whose philosophy was divided into the exoteric, or that taught to all, and the esoteric, or that taught to a select few; and thus his disciples were divided into two classes, according to the Degree of initiation to which they had attained, as being either fully admitted into the society, and invested with all the knowledge that the Master could communicate, or as merely postulants, enjoying only the public instructions of the school, and awaiting the gradual reception of further knowledge. This double mode of instruction was borrowed by Pythagoras from the Egyptian priests, whose theology was of two kinds—the one exoteric, and addressed to the people in general; the other esoteric, and confined to a select number of the priests and to those who possessed, or were to possess, the regal power. And the mystical nature of this concealed doctrine was expressed in their symbolic language by the images of sphinxes placed at the entrance of their temples. Two centuries later, Aristotle adopted the system of Pythagoras, and, in the Lyceum at Athens, delivered in the morning to his select disciples his subtle and concealed doctrines concerning God, Nature, and Life, and in the evening lectures on more elementary subjects to a promiscuous audience. These different lectures he called his Morning and his Evening Walk.

those of you who are not Royal Arch Masons, I ask that you consider joining Cunningham Chapter, for the Grand Lodge of England has said that the Lodge consists of the first three degrees and the Holy Royal Arch. If you have not yet joined a Royal Arch Chapter, you have not yet witnessed the full story. If you wish to join and do not know a Royal Arch member, give me a call or send me an email.

Stated Meeting Second Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

Hospitallers of Jerusalem

In the middle of the eleventh century, some merchants of Amalfi, a rich city of the kingdom of Naples, while trading in Egypt, obtained from the Calif Monstaser Billah permission to establish hospitals in the city of Jerusalem for the use of poor and sick Catholic pilgrims. A site was assigned to them close to the Holy Sepulcher, on which they erected a chapel dedicated to the Virgin, giving it the name of Saint Mary ad Latinos, to distinguish it from those churches where the service was performed according to the Greek ritual. The building was completed in the year 1048; and at the same time two hospitals, one for either sex, were erected in the vicinity of the chapel for the reception of pilgrims. Subsequently each of these hospitals had a separate chapel annexed to it; that for the men being dedicated to Saint John the Almoner, and that for the women to Saint Mary Magdalen. Many of the pilgrims who had experienced the kindness so liberally bestowed upon all wayfarers, abandoned all idea of returning to Europe, and formed themselves into a band of charitable assistants, and, without assuming any regular, religious profession, devoted themselves to the service of the hospital and the care of its sick inmates. The chief cities of the south of Europe subscribed liberally for the support of this institution; and the merchants of Amalfi who were its original founders acted as the stewards of their bounty, which was greatly augmented from the favorable reports of grateful pilgrims who had returned home, and the revenues of the hospital were thus much increased. The associates assumed the name of Hospitallers of Jerusalem. Afterward, taking up arms for the protection of the holy places against the Saracens, they called themselves Knights Hospitallers, a title which they subsequently changed to that of Knights of Rhodes, and finally to that of Knights of Malta.

—From Mackey's Revised Encyclopedia of Freemasonry, 1946.

Chamber of Reflection

In the French and Scottish Rites, a small room adjoining the Lodge, in which, preparatory to initiation, the candidate is enclosed for the purpose of indulging in those serious meditations which its somber appearance and the gloomy emblems with which it is furnished are calculated to produce. It is also used in some of the advanced degrees for a similar purpose. Its employment is very appropriate, for, as Gädicke well observes, "It is only in solitude that we can deeply reflect upon our present or future undertakings, and blackness, darkness, or solitariness, is ever a symbol of death. A man who has undertaken a thing after mature reflection seldom turns back."

Lakewood Chapter Order of DeMolay

Stated Meetings First & Third Thursdays 7:30 p.m.

Lakewood DeMolay meets on the first and third Thursday of each month, and all Masons are encouraged to visit at any meeting. Membership is open to young men aged 12 to 21. No Masonic affiliation is required for membership other than to be sponsored by a Mason. If you know of a young man who would be a good DeMolay and who would enjoy the great experience that is DeMolay, please contact Chapter Advisor Dad Craig Haskett at 440.892.1738 or bvhomeloans@yahoo.com. With 58 members, our Chapter is now the largest in Ohio. We especially invite Masons to our semi-annual Installation of Officers on Thursday, September 20, at 7:30p. Our young men are always encouraged by your presence.

The Board met again on November 29 and instructed the Treasurer to get an option on the Andrews property, 100 x 200 feet, for ninety days, paying a nominal amount for the same; and to continue negotiations for the Wager, Kundtz and McMyler sites.

Meeting on December 5, the Board instructed Cotabish, Chrisford and Weigard to inquire into the merits and demerits of the Kundtz and Andrews properties, making notes and bringing the same before the Directors for recommendation at their next meeting. On December 12 the Board confirmed the appointment of a committee of Cotabish (chairman), Sanders and Chrisford who called on the Andrews and made an offer of $60 per foot, 100 foot Detroit Street frontage, with Andrews to pay 1912 taxes; on the basis of $500 down and a first mortgage of 6% per annum. Further, if the Andrews did not accept the proposition, the committee was empowered to offer $4500 for the Kundtz property on the same basis.

The purchase of the Andrews property was cemented on December 16 when the Board accepted Frank Andrews' counterproposal of $65 per foot with the restriction that any building between Andrews and French be set back not less than 40 feet from the Detroit sidewalk line and 20 feet from the sideline.

Will you help us preserve for future generations what our first Board of Directors started?
